6. [redacted] Met with Mr. Frank Slatinshek, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and discussed with him the OSR/TF review of the document, "The Changing Strategic Naval Balance, USSR vs US." Mr. Slatinshek found it most interesting and said that it would be well to go over it with Mr. Blandford on his return on Monday.

25X1

At Mr. Slatinshek's request, I checked with OCI and relayed available information on the Peruvian seizure of an American fishing vessel, The Mariner, and the alleged firing on the San Juan.

7. [redacted] Received a call from Miss Sue Tinajero, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, concerning an inquiry received by the Committee staff from a Washington Evening Star writer, Bryan Kelly, for point of contact in the Agency for possible information on the recent 83 Cuban defectors. After checking with Mr. Goodwin, I advised Miss Tinajero that the escapes had taken place through Guantanamo and that contact on the matter should be made with the Department of the Navy.

8. [redacted] Met with Mr. E. Hugler, House Subcommittee on Manpower and Civil Service staff, who advised that Chairman Henderson will be returning to the city around noon on Monday. He also advised that Chairman Henderson will be addressing a Department of Defense employee organization in downtown Washington on Tuesday. Contained in the address will be some rather uncomplimentary remarks about the Ervin bill (S. 782). I thanked Mr. Hugler for the information and advised him we plan to meet with Mr. Henderson early in the week.

9. [redacted] Talked to Mr. Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, who advised that there is little possibility of the follow-up meeting with Chairman Mahon and the CIA Subcommittee for the next two weeks. Mr. Lipscomb plans to leave the city on Monday night or Tuesday and will be away for at least ten days.
